Tomer Lev

Professor of piano, Buchmann-Mehta School of Music, Tel Aviv University; He was the Head of the School for 11 years. Maintains a versatile career as soloist, chamber musician, and pedagogue. Performed extensively throughout Europe, North America, South America, the Near East and the Far East. As soloist collaborated with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in London, the English Chamber Orchestra, the Israel Philharmonic, the symphony orchestras of Hamburg, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires, Tanglewood Festival, Varna Festival, Colorado, Quebec, Kiev and others, including all major Israeli orchestras. His series as soloist with Israel Philharmonic were under the baton of Zubin Mehta, Yoel Levi, Jerzy Semkow, among others. Has been presented at the Lincoln Center in New York, the "Philharmonie" Hall in Berlin, "Teatro Colon" in Buenos Aires, the Beijing Concert Hall, the Municipal Theater of Shanghai, Hamburg's "Musikhalle", the "Rudolfinum" in Prague, "Sala Sao Paulo", "Glen Gould Hall" in Toronto, and in all Israel's concert halls. Has recorded for UK labels ASV/Sanctuary Records and Champs Hill Records. In 2020 slated to release 3 new albums for "Hyperion" and "Naxos". An enthusiastic chamber musician, he was a member of the Israel Piano Trio and toured with the ensemble Europe and South America. Graduated from Thelma Yellin High School for the Arts; studied the piano with his mother, pianist Naomi Lev, and composition with composer Tzvi Avni. Completed his B.Mus and M.Mus degrees at the Rubin Academy of Tel Aviv University, under Arie Vardi and Victor Derevianko. His Doctorate, under the guidance of Gilbert Kalish, is from the State University of New York at Stony Brook.
