Norma Fisher

Norma Fisher is recognised internationally as one of Britain's leading pianists and teachers. She has played with many of the great orchestras of the world under leading conductors and with Europe's finest chamber-musicians.

A protégé of the eminent Greek pianist Gina Bachauer and pupil of Ilona Kabos; at the age of 21 she was a top prize winner in the Busoni International Piano Competition and the same year shared the Piano Prize of the Harriet Cohen International Music Awards with Vladimir Ashkenazy.

Her reputation as a teacher is widely established and many of her top prize-winning students are well known on the international concert circuit. She is a Professor of Piano at the Royal College of Music, a Fellow of the Royal Northern College of Music and is invited to give master classes across the globe. She is also much in demand as a Jury member of many major international piano competitions.

She is the Artistic Director of London Master Classes , whose acclaimed courses attract major international talent to work intensively with top performers/teachers in London.
